PANTHERS FOOTBALL

It is hard to believe but it is time to start thinking about football for 2010! The mission of Panthers Football is to develop a respect for the game of football through teaching the basic fundamentals of the sport, teamwork, good sportsmanship, respect, discipline, commitment and response to leadership. The Panthers offers a tackle football program that competes against other youth clubs in the Arapahoe Youth League. Participation is available to youth ages 6-14.

KEY Dates for the 2010 Football Season:

PANTHERS BASKETBALL

Registration for both girls and boys basketball, grades 2-6 will begin in September 2010.

PANTHERS PRESIDENT

Are you interested in leading a community based youth sports organization? The Panthers are searching for a new President before the end of 2010. This position supports the various Panther sports delegates, represents the club on the Executive Board of the Arapahoe Youth League and guides the direction of the club as a member of the Panther Board of Directors. Additionally, the President serves as the clubs face to the community we serve. Background checks are required. Interested parties should email a letter of interest, personal biography along with contact information to info@panthersports.org no later than June 1, 2010.

Boys Sports: Baseball, Basketball, Football & Lacrosse
Girls Sports: Basketball, Cheerleading, Lacrosse & Volleyball
